CHAPTER OVERVIEW زبان بوک

Longman Academic Writing Series, Level 1, Sentences to Paragraphs offers a carefully structured approach to basic academic writing. It features instruction on paragraph organization, grammar, sentence structure, mechanics, and the writing process.

NEW!

Four-color design makes the lessons even more engaging.

NEW!

Chapter objectives provide clear goals for instruction.

INTRODUCTION

Before you write something, it helps to look at models. Models are examples. Model sentences will help you write your own sentences. Model paragraphs will help you write your own paragraphs. In this book, you will see many model paragraphs.

LOOKING AT THE MODELS

In the writing models, three students introduce themselves to their teachers and classmates.

Work with a partner. Read the models. Then check (✓) the information you find in each model.

Writing Model 1

I would like to introduce myself. My name is Shaukat Mahin. My nickname is Salim. I am from Pakistan. I speak Bengali. I am married. I live with my wife and our son. I want to study computers.

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> name | <input type="checkbox"/> family |
| <input type="checkbox"/> home country | <input type="checkbox"/> work |
| <input type="checkbox"/> languages | <input type="checkbox"/> classes at school |
| <input type="checkbox"/> where he lives | <input type="checkbox"/> free-time fun |
| <input type="checkbox"/> age | <input type="checkbox"/> plans for the future |

Writing Model 2

I would like to introduce myself. My name is Marta Moreno. My full name is Marta Lucia Moreno Martinez. I am from Colombia. I am 19 years old. I live on campus. I like to go dancing. I want to travel.

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> name | <input type="checkbox"/> family |
| <input type="checkbox"/> home country | <input type="checkbox"/> work |
| <input type="checkbox"/> languages | <input type="checkbox"/> classes at school |
| <input type="checkbox"/> where she lives | <input type="checkbox"/> free-time fun |
| <input type="checkbox"/> age | <input type="checkbox"/> plans for the future |

2 CHAPTER 1

Realistic writing models present the type of writing students will learn to produce in the end-of-chapter Writing Assignments.

Looking at Vocabulary encourages students to notice useful words and phrases from the writing models that they can use in their writing assignments.

Looking at Vocabulary: Phrasal Verbs

A phrasal verb has two parts: a verb (such as go or get) and a particle (such as up, on, or out). The meaning of a phrasal verb is often very different from the meaning of the verb alone.

- | | |
|----------------------------|---------------------------------|
| He gets a lot of email. | gets = receives |
| He gets up early. | gets up = leaves his bed |
| His plane gets in at 1:00. | gets in = arrives |

PRACTICE 1 Phrasal Verbs

A Find these phrasal verbs in the writing models and underline them.

dress up sleep in eat out go out stay up

B Match the phrasal verbs from the box with their meanings. Fill in the blanks.

- _____ = put on nice clothes
- _____ = not go to bed until late
- _____ = leave home, often to do something for fun
- _____ = have a meal in a restaurant instead of at home
- _____ = stay in bed and sleep later than usual in the morning

ORGANIZATION

TIME ORDER

When you write a paragraph, you must think about organization. You must plan how to present information in a clear order. Writers need to organize information to make it easy for people to read. There are many ways to do this.

One way to organize information is to put it in time order (also called chronological order). This means writing about events in the order in which they happen. Start with the first or earliest event, and then tell what happens after that.

Time-order words help make information clear to the reader. They go at the beginning of sentences. A comma follows each one except Then. Do not put a comma after Then.

First, Later, Then, After that, Next, Finally,

Clear instruction develops students' grasp of paragraph structure and organization.

PRACTICE 11 Capital Letters in Titles

Rewrite each title with the capital letters needed.

- the adventures of Tom Sawyer
The Adventures of Tom Sawyer
- Harry Potter and the chamber of secrets
- a tale of two cities
- around the world in eighty days
- the good, the bad, and the ugly
- a journey to the center of the earth

Mark Twain author of The Adventures of Tom Sawyer

Applying Vocabulary: Using Phrasal Verbs

You saw some common phrasal verbs used in the writing models on pages 70 and 71:

dress up get up sleep in eat out go out stay up

You may want to use some of those phrasal verbs when you do the Writing Assignment on page 84, writing about one day in a classmate's week.

PRACTICE 12 Using Phrasal Verbs

A Complete the sentences with phrasal verbs from the box above.

- When my alarm clock rings in the morning, it is time for me to _____.
- I do not set an alarm when I want to _____.
- I like to _____ with my friends for a movie or a concert.

Applying Vocabulary shows students how to use new words and phrases in their writing.

Grammar and Sentence Structure sections in each chapter help students understand the building blocks of sentences. Clear charts with examples make the rules easy to see and remember.

GRAMMAR AND SENTENCE STRUCTURE

NOUNS

A noun is a word for a person, a place, a thing, or an idea. Look at the chart. The boldfaced words in the sentences are nouns.

NOUNS CAN BE:	EXAMPLES
1. Words for people	My daughter is at school. Do you know David ?
2. Words for places	We usually eat in the kitchen . They are going to San Diego .
3. Words for things	I love ice cream . He drives a Hyundai .
4. Words for ideas	My education is important to me. Do you speak French ?

Some nouns in the chart begin with capital letters: David, San Diego, Hyundai, and French. These words are proper nouns. A proper noun is the name of a specific person, place, thing, or idea. A proper noun always begins with a capital letter.

The other nouns in the sentences (daughter, kitchen, ice cream, education) are common nouns. A common noun does not need a capital letter.

PRACTICE 4 Identifying Types of Nouns

Work alone or with a partner. Write person, place, thing, or idea above each boldfaced noun in the paragraph. For some nouns, there may be more than one answer.

This is what I usually do in the afternoon.
I leave school and take the bus downtown with my friends. I do not go home. My little brothers are there, and the television is always on, so our apartment is noisy. Instead, I go to the library. There I can do my homework. On some days, I can get help from a tutor. I like to look at magazines, too, like Sports Illustrated. I usually spend two hours there.

Practice activities reinforce learning and lay the groundwork for the end-of-chapter Writing Assignment.

Editing skills are sharpened as students find and correct errors in sentences and paragraphs.

PRACTICE 10 Correcting Verb Errors

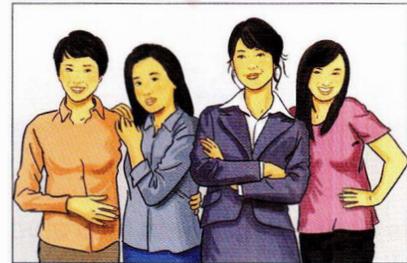

Find one verb error in each statement. Make corrections.

1. My best friend ~~is need~~^{needs} a new job.
2. My friend's name is Massimiliano.
3. People calls him Max.
4. He work for a bank.
5. He is not like his job.
6. His job it's not the right job for him.
7. He is not want to stay at the bank.
8. He want to play his guitar all the time.
9. Max and his friends has a rock band.
10. They are good musicians, but they are not make any money.

TRY IT OUT!

Work alone or with a partner. On a sheet of paper, write eight or more sentences about the Kim sisters. Use your imagination. Include both affirmative and negative verbs in your sentences.

Ronnie teaches math at a high school.
Allison does not have a job.
All the sisters have boyfriends.

The Kim sisters: Lizzie, Emily, Ronnie, and Allison

Try It Out! activities challenge students to apply what they have learned.

Step-by-step writing assignments make the writing process clear and easy to follow.

WRITING ASSIGNMENT

You are going to write a paragraph about a trip you took, like the writing models on pages 153 and 154. You will have a choice of prewriting activities.

STEP 1: Prewrite to get ideas.

- a. Get ready to write by doing a prewriting activity. Choose one of these activities:
 - Make notes about the trip in time order. (See page 133 for an example of notes in time order.)
 - Freewrite about the trip for at least five minutes. (See page 134 for an explanation of freewriting and an example.)

Writing Tip

When you prepare to write a paragraph, think about your readers. What will they want to know about your topic? Working with a partner during the writing process helps you understand the needs of your readers.

- b. Find a partner and take turns asking about each other's trips. Ask questions like these:
 - Where did you go on your trip?
 - When did you go?
 - Who went with you?
 - How long was your trip?
 - What did you do on your trip?
 - How did you feel about the trip?
 - What do you remember most about your trip?
- c. Look again at your notes or freewriting. Add information as needed. Include answers to the questions above. Underline the information that will be most important to describe your trip.

STEP 2: Write the first draft.

Write your first draft. Begin your paragraph with a topic sentence. See the writing models on pages 153 and 154 for examples. Give details in your supporting sentences. Try to include both past time expressions and past time clauses. End your paragraph with a concluding sentence.

168 CHAPTER 8

NEW!

Writing Tips provide useful strategies to help students produce better writing.

STEP 3: Revise and edit the draft.

- a. Read your paragraph again. It may help you to read it out loud. Make changes if needed.
- b. Do peer review. Sit with a partner and exchange papers. Give each other feedback. Follow the steps on the Peer Review Worksheet.

PEER REVIEW WORKSHEET

Your partner's name: _____

Content

1. Read all of your partner's paragraph.
2. Underline any part of the paragraph you do not understand. Ask your partner to explain it.
3. Circle the topic sentence. If there is no topic sentence, write TS? on the paper.
4. Reread the supporting sentences. Ask questions if you want more information, or if it is not clear when the events happened.
5. Circle the concluding sentence. If there is no concluding sentence, write CS? on the paper.

Format and Language

6. Use this list to check your partner's paragraph. Check (✓) each item in the list as you finish.

<input type="checkbox"/> a subject in every sentence	<input type="checkbox"/> the use of before and after
<input type="checkbox"/> a verb for every subject	<input type="checkbox"/> the use of commas
<input type="checkbox"/> the use of past tense verbs
7. Put a question mark (?) if you are not sure about something.

- c. Return your partner's paper. Can you say something nice about it?
- d. Look at your own paper. If you do not agree with the feedback on it, ask another student or your teacher. Mark any changes you want to make.

STEP 4: Write a new draft.

Writing Tip

Experienced writers know that good writing comes from re-writing. Do more than one draft and edit carefully.

- a. Take a new sheet of paper and write a new draft.
- b. Edit your new draft carefully. Then hand it in to your teacher.

Memories of a Trip 169

Peer Review Worksheets help students give and receive constructive suggestions in a collaborative way.

NEW!

Self-Assessment encourages students to evaluate their progress.

SELF-ASSESSMENT

In this chapter, you learned to:

- End a paragraph with a concluding sentence
- Write past time expressions
- Use before and after as prepositions
- Write complex sentences with past time clauses
- Identify and correct sentence fragments
- Write, revise, and edit a paragraph about a trip

Which ones can you do well? Mark them ☑

Which ones do you need to practice more? Mark them ☒

EXPANSIONTIMED WRITING

Students need to write quickly to succeed in academic writing. For example, sometimes students need to do a writing assignment in class or on a test, and they have only a short time to do it.

To practice writing quickly, you are going to write a paragraph in class. You will have 20 minutes. To complete the assignment in time, follow these steps.

1. Read the writing prompt below (or the prompt that your teacher gives you). Make sure that you understand the prompt. If you have questions, ask your teacher. (2 minutes)
2. Brainstorm to get ideas. On a piece of paper, make some notes. Then think about organizing your ideas. Mark up your notes with circles, arrows, and numbers to show the order of information in your paragraph. Write a topic sentence for your paragraph. (6 minutes)
3. Write your paragraph. Be sure to include a topic sentence, supporting sentences, and a concluding sentence. (10 minutes)
4. Check your paragraph. Correct any mistakes. (2 minutes)
5. Give your paper to your teacher.

Prompt: Write a paragraph about an experience you remember from when you were a child.

170 CHAPTER 8

NEW!

Timed Writing activities help prepare students to write well on tests.

Expansion sections, such as timed writing, additional writing practice, and journal writing, encourage students to develop fluency.

EXPANSIONON YOUR OWN

Write a paragraph about your sleep habits. You can use "My Sleep Habits" as a title. You can begin your paragraph with one of these sentences:

I am happy with my sleep habits.

My sleep habits are not good.

1. Use these questions to help you take notes before you begin writing your first draft. Follow the steps of the writing process described on pages 40–42.
 - Do you get enough sleep, or are you often tired?
 - How many hours of sleep do you need?
 - What time do you usually go to bed?
 - What time do you usually get up?
 - Are weekday and weekend nights the same or different for you?
2. Write your first draft.
3. Ask a classmate to review your paragraph, or use the Peer Review Worksheet on page 41 to help you revise and edit.
4. Prepare a new draft, and give it to your teacher.

YOUR JOURNAL

Continue making entries in your journal. Write as much as you can. Write as often as you can.

Do not worry about writing perfect sentences. Your journal entries are not formal compositions. A journal entry is like a message to a friend.

You can think of your own topics for your journal entries. If you cannot think of a topic for a journal entry, try one of these ideas:

- Write about a favorite food or drink. When and where do you have it? Do you make it, does someone make it for you, or do you buy it?
- Draw a picture or put a photo in your journal. Then write about it.
- Write about how you learn new words in English. Where do you find them? Do you write new words in a notebook? What kind of dictionary do you have?

For more ideas for journal entries, see Appendix A, page 193.

CHAPTER 1

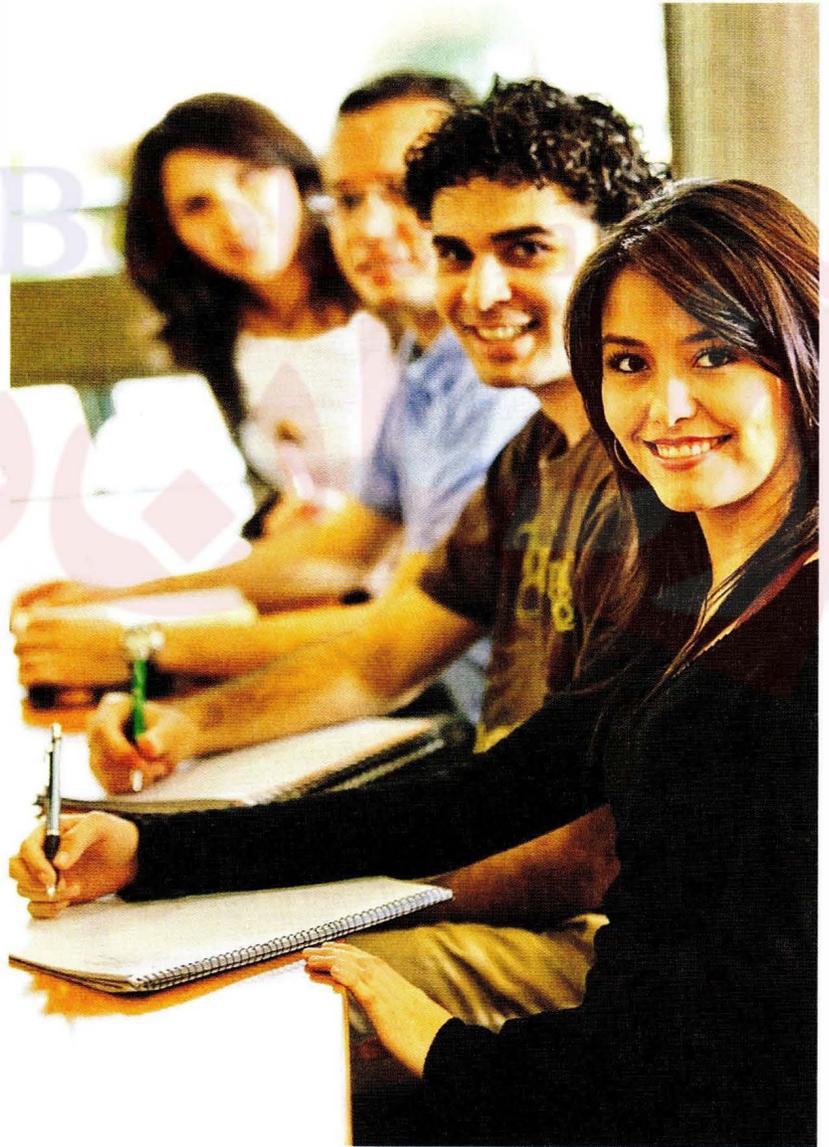

INTRODUCING YOURSELF

OBJECTIVES

Writers need certain skills.

In this chapter, you will learn to:

- Put sentences into paragraph form
- Identify subjects and verbs in sentences
- Use capital letters and end punctuation in sentences
- Write sentences with the verb be
- Write, revise, and edit a paragraph to introduce yourself

It's nice to meet you!

INTRODUCTION

Before you write something, it helps to look at models. Models are examples. Model sentences will help you write your own sentences. Model paragraphs will help you write your own paragraphs. In this book, you will see many model paragraphs.

LOOKING AT THE MODELS

In the writing models, three students introduce themselves to their teachers and classmates.

Work with a partner. Read the models. Then check (✓) the information you find in each model.

Writing Model 1

I would like to introduce myself. My name is Shaukat Matin. My nickname is Salim. I am from Pakistan. I speak Bengali. I am married. I live with my wife and our son. I want to study computers.

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> name | <input type="checkbox"/> family |
| <input type="checkbox"/> home country | <input type="checkbox"/> work |
| <input type="checkbox"/> languages | <input type="checkbox"/> classes at school |
| <input type="checkbox"/> where he lives | <input type="checkbox"/> free-time fun |
| <input type="checkbox"/> age | <input type="checkbox"/> plans for the future |

Writing Model 2

I would like to introduce myself. My name is Marta Moreno. My full name is Marta Lucía Moreno Martínez. I am from Colombia. I am 19 years old. I live on campus. I like to go dancing. I want to travel.

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> name | <input type="checkbox"/> family |
| <input type="checkbox"/> home country | <input type="checkbox"/> work |
| <input type="checkbox"/> languages | <input type="checkbox"/> classes at school |
| <input type="checkbox"/> where she lives | <input type="checkbox"/> free-time fun |
| <input type="checkbox"/> age | <input type="checkbox"/> plans for the future |

Writing Model 3

*I would like to introduce myself.
My name is Zhang Minxiong,
but please call me Calvin. Zhang is my family name. Minxiong means smart and heroic. I am 21.
I am taking classes in English and math. I live with my cousin and his family. I work part-time in his restaurant. I want to have my own business.*

- name
- home country
- languages
- where he lives
- age
- family
- work
- classes at school
- free-time fun
- plans for the future

Looking at Vocabulary: Words for Names

Learning about words for names will help you introduce yourself. It will also help you learn other people's names. Look at the words for the name in the name tag.

The words last name and family name have the same meaning.

PRACTICE 1 Names in Introductions

A Look at the writing models. Find an example for each word in the list. Write the number of the model.

1. A first name: Marta in Writing Model 2
2. A nickname: _____ in Writing Model _____
3. A full name: _____ in Writing Model _____
4. A family name: _____ in Writing Model _____

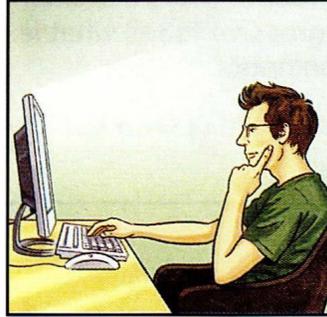

PRACTICE 4

Describing Actions

A Match the verbs with the pictures. Write a sentence for each picture using the present progressive form of the verb.

- a. drive c. listen e. fix g. stand
~~b. use~~ d. run f. hold h. carry b 1.

He is using a computer.

_____ 2.

_____ 3.

_____ 4.

_____ 5.

_____ 6.

_____ 7.

_____ 8.

PRACTICE 9Verbs in Sentences with Future Time Clauses

Circle the correct verb. Underline the independent clause in each sentence once and underline the future time clause twice.

- Sonia and Tony are going to get married after they (finish / will finish) school.
- I (am / will be) there when they have their wedding in June.
- After they (are / are going to be) married, they are going to take a trip.
- When they (come / will come) back, they are going to find work.
- They (look / will look) for a place to live after they have jobs.
- They are probably going to wait before they (have / will have) children.
- Before they start a family, they (buy / are going to buy) a house.
- I hope they will be very happy when they (are / will be) married.

PRACTICE 10*Using After

Look at Omar's schedule for Friday. Take a sheet of paper and write four sentences with after about things he is going to do. Use both after + noun and after + subject and verb. Underline each phrase or clause with after.

After coffee with Luisa, Omar is going to go to his math class.

He's going to return a library book after his math test is over.

FRIDAY
8:00	8:30 coffee with Luisa
9:00	Math 103—TEST
10:00	computer lab—print out Eng. writing assignment; library—return book
11:00	ENG 098
12:00	lunch
1:00	1:20 see advisor
2:00	library—meet BIO study group
3:00	soccer

Write

STEP 2: Write the first draft.

Use your notes to write a first draft. Your paragraph must begin with a topic sentence. See the writing models on pages 173 and 174 for examples. Your supporting sentences should all relate to your main idea. End your paragraph with a concluding sentence. It should connect to the ideas in your topic sentence. Remember to use be going to, not will, when you write about plans you have made for the future.

Edit

STEP 3: Revise and edit the draft.

- a. Read your paragraph again. It may help you to read it out loud. Make changes if needed.
- b. Do peer review. Sit with a partner and exchange papers. Give each other feedback. Follow the steps on the Peer Review Worksheet.

PEER REVIEW WORKSHEET

Your partner's name: _____

Content

1. Read all of your partner's paragraph.
2. Underline any part of the paragraph you do not understand. Ask your partner to explain it.
3. Circle the topic sentence. If there is no topic sentence, write TS? on the paper.
4. Reread the supporting sentences. Ask questions if you want more information, or if it is not clear when events are going to happen.
5. Circle the concluding sentence. If there is no concluding sentence, write CS? on the paper.

Format and Language

6. Use this list to check your partner's paragraph. Check (✓) each item as you finish.

<input type="checkbox"/> a subject in every sentence	<input type="checkbox"/> the use of verbs with be going to and will
<input type="checkbox"/> a verb for every subject	<input type="checkbox"/> the use of time-order or listing-order words
7. Put a question mark (?) if you are not sure about something.

- c. Return your partner's paper. Can you say something nice about it?
- d. Look at your own paper. If you do not agree with the feedback on it, ask another student or your teacher.
- e. Mark any changes you want to make.
