1.1 What's the book about?

1 What is a "good day" for you? What is a "bad day"? Look at the sentences and talk about good and bad days.

On a good/bad day, ...

- a it rains all day.
- b you meet an old friend.
- c you see a movie.
- d you can't find your homework.

2 Look at the fortune teller in the picture on page 5. What do you think about fortune tellers? Why? Choose a sentence (✓).

They are always right.	They are usually right.	They are sometimes right and sometimes wrong.	They are usually wrong.	They are always wrong.

1.2 What happens first?

Look at the pictures on pages 1 and 2. Circle the right words in the sentences. What do you think?

- 1 Mike lives in a small / big town.
- 2 He is about twenty-five / forty years old.
- 3 His mother / sister is visiting him.
- 4 Mike and Kerry walk / drive from Mike's apartment.
- 5 Kerry / Mike likes fortune tellers.

Mike gets a new job and moves from his small town to Boston. He likes the job and he likes his new apartment. He likes Boston. There is only one problem. He doesn't meet many new people.

This weekend Mike's sister Kerry is visiting her brother. "Do you have many new friends here?" she asks him. "Not many," Mike says. "I'm worried about you!" Kerry says. "You're always worried about me!" Mike says.

worried /'wɔ:ɪd, 'wɑ:ɪd/ (adj) I don't like airplanes. I am always worried on them!

On Saturday morning they go out.
 "Let's go into town," Mike says. "There's a bus stop near here."
 But Kerry sees a sign in a window:
VISIT ROSIE THE FORTUNE TELLER.
 "No," she says. "Let's go in there!"

sign /saɪn/ (n) The names of the movies are on a big sign at the theater.
fortune teller /'fɜːrtʃən ,telə/ (n) "I see a good day for you tomorrow," the fortune teller says to Jane. "You find some money."

Mike isn't happy about this. He doesn't believe in fortune tellers.
 But Kerry says, "Please, Mike. I love fortune tellers!"
 "Wait, Kerry!"
 But she is going into the house and Mike can't stop her. He goes in after her.

A woman is sitting at a table in a small room. This is Rosie, the fortune teller.

believe (in) /bə'li:v/ (v) "I don't believe in banks. My money is under my bed!"
 "Animals can talk? I don't believe it!"
